BOUTELLE & BURR, Proprietors.
C. A. BOUTELLE, Editor.

In issuing the Forty-fifth annual Prospectus of these standard Newspapers, the Proprietors confidently appeal to the record of almost half a century as affording the best promise of the future, while they will continue to spare no effort in maintaining and advancing their high character as

The Leading Journals of Eastern Maine,

And with the facilities at our command we hope to make our journals still more interesting during the coming year.
Our connection with the Associated Press, from which we receive all the dispatches by night and day, enables us to present in each issue

The Latest Telegraphic News from All Parts of the World.

In addition we shall be served by Special Correspondents at important points, and shall furnish

Full Reports of Local, Domestic and Foreign News,
Proceedings of Congress,
Of State Legislature,
Financial and Commercial,
Home Produce Markets,
Editorial Articles, Agricultural News,
Manufacturing Intelligence,
Selected Stories,
Choice Poetry,
Entertaining Miscellany,

And all the important and interesting features which make up a

First Class Family Newspaper.

In politics the papers will continue to advocate and uphold the Principles of the Republican Party, while claiming to be independent, in the highest and best sense of the word. Fearless and outspoken in the treatment of all public questions and firmly maintaining what they believe to be right, they will avoid intolerance and make their appeals to the understanding rather than to prejudice. The year about to open will be fruitful of unusually important political events bearing upon the future of our country, and it will be our aim to afford our readers the earliest and most reliable information and to favor only such measures and policy as will best protect the rights and promote the welfare of all the people.

HOME INTERESTS,

as affected by the development of the resources of Maine, will receive special attention, and whatever is calculated to stimulate or benefit

AGRICULTURE AND MANUFACTURES

in the State will be heartily encouraged. We rigidly exclude from our columns everything of an immoral tendency, avoid sensational matter and seek to make a thoroughly reliable paper which will be sure of A Welcome in Every Family Circle.

To advertisers our columns open one of the best fields in New England, our circulation being the largest of any paper in this section, among the best classes of the people, and as

The Only Morning Daily
East of the Kennebec,

our Daily issue affords the principal medium of communication with a large and constantly increasing number of readers throughout Central and Eastern Maine.

OUR WEEKLY

is also the largest and best Weekly Newspaper in the State. Every number accompanied by a two-page supplement, making a paper of FORTY-EIGHT columns, or one-half larger than any other Weekly. It is a standard publication, with large and constantly increasing circulation among the most intelligent and thrifty of the population of Eastern Maine, and the small space devoted to advertising is eagerly sought by the best class of patrons.

NOW IS THE TIME TO SUBSCRIBE
FOR 1878.

TERMS---Invariably in Advance:
Daily—$8 per annum; $4 for 6 mos.; $2 for 3 mos.
Weekly—$2 per annum; $1 for 6 mos.; 50c. 3 mos.

The new postal law compelling prepayment of postage, imposes the burden on the publishers, but we make no advance upon our established subscription price, and will send the paper

POSTAGE FREE,

Making a saving of $1.20 per annum for each of our Daily, and 20 cents per annum to each of our Weekly subscribers.

CLUBBING WITH MAGAZINES.

Subscribers will be furnished with either our Daily or Weekly paper and any of the favorite Periodicals or Magazines at their lowest Club rates.

In offering these advantageous terms we hope to be sustained by a liberal patronage.

Richardson's NEW METHOD
FOR THE PIANOFORTE.
Price $3.25. By NATHAN RICHARDSON.
275,000 copies sold! Sales have surpassed those of all other books combined. Be sure to order by the above full title, and do not accept instead of it, THE MODERN SCHOOL, which is an older book, by the same author. Mr. Richardson's opinion of the merits of this first effort may be gathered from the following, taken from the Preface to the NEW METHOD.
"Becoming at length satisfied of the truth of these criticisms, (by many eminent composers and professors,) and convinced that great improvements were obviously needed, I determined if possible to remedy the defects. Profiting by the experience and advice of the best practical teachers, I commenced a thorough and critical examination of my first method, and concluded that the only remedy would be to bring out a new work on an improved plan."
This new work, substituted for the defective MODERN SCHOOL, was Richardson's
NEW METHOD FOR THE PIANOFORTE, which has been revised and re-revised, until it is the most perfect of music books, is a great favorite with the profession, and is the only true "Richardson."

VEGETINE.
The following Approved Statement will speak for itself:—
Boston, March 23, 1874.
H. R. Stevens:
Dear Sir,—A few days after the Fourth of July last I got my leg hurt by a fellow workman letting a plank fall, which struck me on the knee. For four months following I was under the treatment of the physicians at the Dispensary, at the end of which time they told me they could do nothing more for me, and that I must go to the hospital and have my leg amputated above the knee. I was removed to the hospital, and lay there ten weeks under the treatment of the best skill the hospital afforded, and no pen can describe the great suffering I endured. My leg was swollen to nearly the size of my body, and all the surface of my knee turned black, and I was told that my knee was so diseased as to render it impossible to save my leg, and unless it was amputated soon I would die. When I first went to the hospital, I raised such an objection to the amputation of my leg, they consented to try one alternative, which was to cut out all the diseased flesh and replace it with sound flesh from the other leg. They did cut six pieces from my well leg, and placed it where the diseased flesh had been removed, but the bone was so much diseased that this experiment proved a failure, and I was removed to my home in a hopeless condition. Other physicians were then employed, until all the money which I had saved from my earnings had been expended, and one thing after another disposed of to pay doctors' bills, until my family was in a destitute condition, with no hope for myself except relief by death. At this time Mr. Hill, the police officer, in my street, called to see me, and, after rendering pecuniary assistance to my family, brought some Vegetine for me, urging me to give it a faithful trial, saying when those two bottles were gone he would see that I had some more. After I had been taking the Vegetine two days the ulcers in my knee commenced to discharge, and I cannot begin to describe the frightful quantity that was discharged during the following eight days; and though previously I had suffered in describable pain, rendering sleep impossible, after taking the Vegetine three days the pain all left me, and my whole complaint seemed to be pouring out of me with this corrupt matter. The Vegetine was not only forcing disease from me, but it gave me strength from day to day. When I commenced on the fourth bottle of Vegetine the swelling had all left my leg, and the sore which covered the whole surface of my knee, commenced to heal next to the bone. I am now on the sixth bottle, the sore is entirely healed, and my health so improved as to enable me to walk all over town. The Vegetine has saved my life. It has saved my leg, and restored me to health, my knee bears the marks of my great suffering, and it will always afford me pleasure to show it in proof of what this good medicine has done for me.
I am, dear sir, very gratefully,
JOHN WELCH, 9 Kneeland Street.

The Policeman's Statement.
The above statement is true. I procured the VEGETINE for him, and carefully observed his condition from the time he commenced to use it until he was cured.
WILLIAM B. HILL, Police Officer, Station 4, Boston, Mass.

Vegetine.
SAFE AND SURE.
Mr. H. R. Stevens:
In 1874 your Vegetine was recommended to me, and, yielding to the persuasions of a friend, I consented to try it. At the time I was suffering from general debility and nervous prostration, superinduced by overwork and irregular habits. Its wonderful strengthening and curative properties seemed to affect my debilitated system from the first dose, and under its persistent use I rapidly recovered, gaining more than usual health and good feeling. Since then I have not hesitated to give Vegetine my most unqualified indorsement as being a safe, sure, and powerful agent in promoting health and restoring the wasted system to new life and energy. Vegetine is the only medicine I use, and as long as I live I never expect to find a better.
Yours truly, W. H. CLARK,

Miss Trippitt on the "Carnival."

Puzzled to know who the different characters were? Well, I must own that I was, rather, now and then, although I'd been studying the Dickens' Dictionary for the last three weeks, besides reading most of "Snow Bound" and "Hiawatha", and skimming the Waverlies and Tennyson.

Bob said to me just before we started "Now, Trip do keep steady while you're in the Hall. Look just as wise as you please, but if you value your future reputation as a female of culture and refinement say just as little as you possibly can, under the circumstances."

Of course I flared up at that, and says I "I'd have you know Master Bob, that I'm better posted than you think. Haven't our class in English Literature been on Shakspeare for the last three weeks? and I've read Longfellow's "Dream of Fair Women" and Whittier's "One Horse Shay", in school my own self, so—there now!"

Bob giggled that provoking giggle of his, but I didn't mind it. When I know a thing I know it, and all the Bobs in creation can't beat me out of it.

After we got started, I made an excuse to turn back after my handkerchief and take a peep into that blessed Dictionary to make sure if Toots was Mrs. Bardell's son or the baby brother of David Copperfield,—(I couldn't help getting a little mixed, you see, with so many and such queer names.)

When we got to the Hall there was an awful jam. Everybody pushed and shoved, and crowded and hustled, and shoved and squeezed till Bob said it made him think of Shakspeare's description of the crowd in London at Queen Anne Boleyn's coronation.

"Sure enough!" I panted, although I hadn't the least idea what he meant, but I wasn't going to tell him so.

The first booth that we came to was "Mother Goose", and it was awful cute. There was "Jack Spratt" with the platter under his arm, "King Cole and his fiddlers three"; "Mother Goose" herself, the tall "Grenadier", "Little Miss Muffitt"; "the man that went to London to buy him a wife", in a wheelbarrow, and ever and ever so many more, all as cunning as they could be.

"Uncle Tom's Cabin" came next, and, oh, if you only could have seen those darkies! They were too funny for anything—all blacked up, and dressed so comical. I thought I should have killed myself laughing when they danced and sang, and "Aunt Chloe" boxed their ears and shook her apron at them, just as if they'd been a flock of chickens. It was real fun, and I should have liked to watch them all the evening. But Bob was in a hurry to see the Dickens' booth, the "Old Curiosity Shop", and I had to go with him.

They were a funny looking lot, to be sure, but as I looked them over, I found I could make them out, with Bob's help just as easy as pie.

There was Mr. and Mrs. Pickwick, and the twins, (two great wax dolls as cunning as they could be,) and Mrs. Pegotty and her daughter little Nell; with jolly Mark Tapley and the pretty landlady Mrs. Gummidge, the two Pecksniff girls Cherry and Merry and their old grandfather, Tom Traddles with Miss Flite, the girl that he was engaged to so long, you know, (I know her by her having the birdcage that the poor fellow had bought to commence housekeeping with.)

Then there was Sam Weller that went to school with Paul Dombey, and fell in love with his sister, little Emily, and Toots with Miss Betsey Trotwood, his aunt, and—oh, there was the red nosed man, Mr. Stiggins that lived in Bleak House and taught a dancing school, and Mrs. Weller, that used to keep house for Mr. Pegotty in his boat house.

There was the fat boy that went to school to Mr. Squeers, and was always calling for "more" and Mrs. Squeers herself with a dish of something in her hand for Mary the housemaid to carry to little Paul Dombey, I suppose. It was first rate, and I felt pretty well to find myself so well posted. I didn't really suppose that I did know so much of Dickens before.

The next was the Schiller booth, and in that we saw William Tell and his wife Joan of Arc; Gessler the tyrant, shooting an apple off of the head of a little boy in the corner, and a couple of Swiss ladies and peasants. They all looked splendid, but I didn't pretend to know much about German poets, so I kept still, and only looked. I guess Bob was glad, for he brightened up wonderfully. "You shall have an ice cream for your self denial, this time, Trip," he whispered.

Then we passed on to the Longfellows, and there we found ourselves face to face with a wigwam full of the reddest Indians that you ever saw in all your life. They were so natural that I actually put my hand to my head to be sure that my switch—my scalp, I mean—was all safe. They jabbered away at us, and Bob half killed himself laughing, they were so cute.

"Which are Hiawatha and Evangeline?" I asked Bob, and you ought to have seen that 'big Indians', smile, through his war paint.

"Mo Hiawatha," he said as politely as you please, but I wasn't going to be treated as a child that don't know what she wants, so I spoke up pretty loud, and says I: "Where's Evangeline that followed Hiawatha all round the world until"—

Just then I caught sight of a white man with long curls, standing in the door of the Miles Standish Cabin and I turned as red as a poppy, for I happened to think that it was John Alden instead of Hiawatha that the poor girl spent her life chasing round after, and I was fearfully cut up, especially when I saw one of those rascally savages giving a sly wink out of the corner of his eye to a wrinkled old woman making baskets,—Mogg Megone, I suppose she was.

Bob took me off to see the Shakspeares and Tennysons that were side by side at the upper end of the Hall.

I was considerably puzzled at first, the dresses were so strange and new to me, but Bob reeled off the names, and I didn't have any trouble then in placing them as they belonged.

There were Macbeth and Lady Macbeth and their son Hamlet, and the Witches that befriended him and fed him with broth when he got lost in Dunsinane woods. Then there was Juliet in a balcony with Othello making love to her from below, and Cardinal Woolsey, the priest that married them after she had been taken out of the tomb, when her cruel relations had buried her alive, because she wouldn't marry the Merchant of Venice. Portia was dressed in black, in mourning, I suppose, for her lover, Hamlet, and Shylock and his daughter Desdemona were just perfect,—they couldn't have been more natural.

One thing puzzled me, and at last I whispered to Bob.

"What does this mean, Bob? There was an Ophelia in Uncle Tom's Cabin, and you say here is another. I shouldn't have thought they'd got the same character in twice."

Bob chuckled.

"Oh," says he, "they're two acting their different persons. This one," and he pointed to a pretty, young lady in white, "loved the Dane, while the other," with a glance over his shoulder—"didn't forget to love anybody so far as we know."

Bob's jokes never amuse anybody but himself, so I didn't even smile, but hurried him along to the Tennyson quarter. Here I felt at home, for I knew all about Fair Rosamond and how King Henry Eighth got his spur entangled in a skein of her embroidery silk, once when he was calling on her, and his Queen Margaret of Anjou found it and went there and killed her, and Cleopatra, the Queen of the Amazons, and Jeptha's daughter, Moses' Ethiopian wife, you know, and Helen that hid herself inside a great wooden horse, and in the night opened the gates of Troy to the Greek army outside. I knew all about them, and so I did about the Quakers in the Snow Bound Cottage, and how Ezek Harden married Maud Muller in spite of her mother's being hung for a witch, and I've heard of Hermits—they used to live all alone in a cave, and if any woman came near they shut up their own eyes so as not to see them while they drove them off.

Then there was Cedric's Hall with all of Scott's characters in it, and I tried to rub up my ideas to be equal to going through that in style. I thought Bob looked a little scarey at me, and I made up my mind I'd shine here if I died for it. "That's Cedric the Saxon," says Bob. "Oh, yes," says I, "I should have recognized him anywhere. No wonder, with such a chest and shoulders that he should have beaten Roderick Dhu, and that you say is Ivanhoe. Oh, yes, I remember, he wanted to marry Queen Elizabeth, and murdered his own poor little wife D. Vernon, so that he could have the queen—wicked creature!—and Rowena, she went all the way on foot to London to ask the King to pardon her sister Rebecca; and the Black Knight,—let me see—oh, I know, now! he was the one that starved the poor Prince and the Fair Maid of Perth to death, and sent the Gleewoman to Mary Queen of Scots to tell her that he would set her free if she would promise to marry him, and Templer was a gypsy chief, and"—

"Do, for Heaven's sake keep still! Come along, and — get an ice-cream," growled Bob, with a face like a thundercloud, and I went, for, if there is anything that I have a relish for in cold weather or hot, it's a nice well flavored ice cream.

After I went up stairs to bed, I heard mother and Bob talking below, so I listened at the register and heard him say

"I never heard anything so ridiculous in all my life,—a girl brought up in a cultivated home, and among well informed people to make such an idiot of herself! I was mortified to death."

Who, in the world, do you suppose they could be talking about?

Androscoggin

There has been found a vein of silver and tin on the farm of A. Potter on Oak Hill, in Litchfield, also a copper mine containing considerable gold. Mr. Potter has secured the rights on two farms adjoining, to work, and is going to sink a shaft in the spring. One report says that one and one-half pounds of the silver ore were sent to New York and assayed at the rate of $2900 per ton of silver. It is said most of the ore in the vicinity of Litchfield and Wales has been discovered by N. B. Tracy of Wales.

Mr. Lyman Nichols has been chosen treasurer pro tem. of the Bates Manufacturing Company. The late Benjamin E. Bates held the treasurship for twenty-five years.

In the Lewiston Board of Aldermen Saturday evening there was considerable discussion over the salary of judge of the Municipal Court. An unsuccessful attempt to reduce the salary was made, when the salary bill was passed, the salaries of assessors being fixed at $200 each and $150 for clerk hire. The salary of the judge is $1100. The Common council have yet to act.

Samuel Look of North Jay while getting hay to his oxen at Levi Mason's at Stickney's Corner, Saturday, broke through the hay scaffold, falling to the floor, nearly twenty feet. He lay unconscious ten or twelve hours, and is seriously injured, but no bones broken except in the face which is badly injured.

Kennebec

Last Friday afternoon the citizens of North Vassalborough were greatly shocked at the sudden death of Mr. Edward S. Weeks. He was engaged with his son in getting out their winter's wood, and was on their way home with a load. James spoke to his father to look out for brush that hung over the road, and on receiving no reply he looked around and saw him lying back on the wood. He spoke to him again, but no response, as life was extinct. Mr. Weeks was subject to heart trouble and was considerably frightened in the forenoon at his horses running away, which no doubt was the cause of his death. The deceased was 68 years of age. He leaves a widow and large children, and his sudden death falls with crushing weight upon them. Mr. Weeks was a high-minded honorable man, loved and respected by all who knew him.

The Ashtabula accident cost the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railway Company $193 040 and all claims on account of the accident have been settled

The California Legislature has passed a bill making incendiary language a felony This has been done to meet the cases of communistic leaders who are trying to incite an outbreak in San Francisco

The Bland Silver Bill is a fraud disgraceful in itself and ruinous to all classes of people, East and West been so known to lands that every debtor who owes $100 shall pay it with 893 —N O Times Dem

Ex Governor Bullock stands acquitted of every charge made against him in Georgia and the Democratic papers are amazed that this most notable of carpet baggers is allowed to escape punishment Punishment for what? For a fraud of the United States Georgia jury has proounced him guilty of no crime

It is the policy of the opposition to the Conkling faction in California to keep it from the front in the Republican party and at the ports of the Sacramento Union charging Board of Supervisors have passed a resolution declaring all persons connected with the public affairs of the city to cease employing Chinamen to do any work whatever

It would be good for Secretary of the Treasury Sherman to keep a supply of silver dollars on hand with which to meet the demands of the silver dollar law Instead of this he is buying gold and selling silver at a loss of about a million dollars a month in order to accumulate a large amount of silver dollars for their face Instead of paying out every Congressman carrying sixty pounds of silver dollar from the capitol to his hotel—there is a loss of about a million a month in the operation —Boston Advertiser

Secretary Sherman has written a letter declining to be a candidate for the office of Governor of the Bank of England Perhaps the real reason is that he is afraid he would get stuck down there as Governor Bullock has got stuck in Georgia

We have already spoken of the case of J B Johnson Republican elected member of the South Carolina House of Representatives from Sumter county The contest brought the election also the right of Johnson had received a majority This was publicly announced but before the official count was made on behalf of the ballot boxes were stolen and the Democratic commissioners reported the case to the Legislature with the statement that the ballots remaining in their possession showed a majority of fifty two votes in favor of the Democratic candidate The ultra Democrats in the House made a strong effort to seat the Democratic candidate but there was a hitch and Johnson Republican was seated by a strong vote Johnson is the brother of the Sumter county member of the Mackey House who declined to apologize for sustaining Chamberlain

The special of the Boston Traveller says The hard money men derive considerable satisfaction out of the fact that the silver men seem to realize fully now, and are ready to admit as Gen Butler did that the silver bill as it passed the House, will not receive the President's approval, but be vetoed Heretofore they have maintained that the President would sign the bill but the bold declaration of Gen Butler in conference in favor of attaching the silver bill, if vetoed to an appropriation bill, and to compel the President to sign it in this way or stop he supplies for the government is accepted as conclusive evidence that the silver men have become convinced that the President intends to veto the bill when laid before him for his signature Several Republican members became disgusted and withdrew from the conference yesterday after it became apparent that it was being managed in the interests of the Democratic party, and that it was merely a trap set for those Republicans who favor the remonetization of silver

English advices of the shipment of one million dollars in gold and the immediate shipment of two millions more in New York, are authoritative and significant In one sense, it makes no difference to this country whether this money is intended for the purpose of purchasing provisions in view of a war with Russia or carrying out another theory —The probability is that this sum of three millions is intended for the purchase of grain and other articles of supply for a non-producing population In some way, at any rate, it is to be used here and of course in some way to benefit trade If that amount of our surplus products is taken out of the country the relief it would give would soon be appreciated in every section of the country There is another view legitimately to be taken While there is such an amount of our bonds abroad this sending of coin urges no confidence in our financial honor and ability Even if it be said that throwing such an amount of bonds upon the market would depreciate their value, yet if the British population believe that these bonds were to be redeemed in part, it would prefer to sell buy and sell them rather than ship gold Three millions is not a large sum in comparison with our whole foreign trade but it is something in the right direction and it is far better to receive it in coin than in articles which compete with our own manufactures or are merely articles of luxury the consumption of which contributes nothing to our national advancement

The delegation of workmen who called upon Mayor Pierce of Boston last Saturday to find employment from the public received a short lecture instead which many of them did not like to hear The Mayor told them frankly that he thought it would be very bad policy for the people of the City Government to undertake to find employment to the exclusion of business depression to which it belongs to do work from private corporations and individuals The experiment he said had been practically tried and had invariably ended in increasing distress among the working classes If Mayor meant to say that it is the duty of the City Government to employ at public expense all persons for the purpose of affording them daily bread, there is an end of the whole matter and the relative duties of the City Government and the individual citizen would be clearly defined Such a policy would be ruinous to the best interests of the laboring classes

Some of the Boston papers are very much excited all over facts and fiction in connection with the early history of Maine and Massachusetts which Senator Blaine has very appropriately addressed at the presentation of the Governor Kent statue to the Capitol Hardly referred to and which probably could not be settled without the aid of the first Governor, Messrs Dawes and Hoar opened a debate with Mr Blaine on the same subject at the close of which it was evident that neither were told by him that very strong feeling existed against Governor Kent of Massachusetts on account of his action in the Massachusetts records And not very many people believe that Governor Kent is to be regarded as a martyr

The Boston Journal of Washington puts the Democrats in a fair light to discover the disadvantage of the silver measure passed Under the consideration of the Committee on Appropriations Tuesday Chairman Cobb reported from the Legislative bill and the Diplomatic bill In the House on April 1st the Diplomatic bill will be reported from

The [illegible] resolve came from Committee on engrossed Bills and on the question of its final passage Mr Wood of Vea[illegible] strongly against endorsing the [illegible] of our members of Congress and [illegible] himself on record as opposed to paying our Government bonds in gold and [illegible] the remonetization of silver and [illegible] for the eyes and days.

Mr Austin of Milford would put him [illegible] on record on the opposite side. He is in favor of an honest currency. Believed in the course of our Representatives in Congress on this question, and that the resolve as it reads expresses the sentiment of the people of our State. He seconded the motion of Mr Weed. The resolve was passed by a vote of 117 to 21.

[TO THE ASSOCIATED PRESS]

State Temperance Convention

The State Temperance Convention met at Granite Hall this forenoon at 11 o'clock, a large number of temperance workers from different parts of the State being present. Governor Connor was chosen President and being indisposed, Eli Jones, the venerable Quaker preacher, presided. The afternoon meeting was largely attended. General Neal Dow presented extreme views in favor of seizing liquors in process of transportation. Speeches were made also by Gen James A Hall of Damariscotta, Rev Father Adams of Winslow, Major E Rowell of Hallowell, and several reformed men. Opposition was expressed by two of the speakers against changing the laws relating to temperance this year. Ex Governor Dingley presided at the evening meeting, which was preceded by brief addresses by reformed men, the weight of whose testimony was all against the policy and principle of allowing druggists to sell liquors. Resolutions were reported and unanimously passed, expressing gratitude for the success attained thus far in the temperance cause, due to the efforts of the various secret and open temperance organizations, reform clubs, churches, etc, that the belief is too prevalent that liquor is absolutely necessary as a medicine when wise medical men are coming to the conclusion that it may be dispensed with in nearly all cases; that when a place for its sale is demanded in any town or city, the system of town agencies can be adopted, earnestly protesting against the passage of the bill now before the Legislature authorizing druggists to sell mixed intoxicating liquors for medicinal purposes. No law, however guarded, which authorizes every class of men to sell for their own profit intoxicating liquors, can guard against these abuses dangerously impairing the efficiency of the prohibitory law. Gov. Dingley addressed the Convention in support of the resolution. A protest against the druggists bill was presented by General Dow and received a passage. The Convention thus giving a double ender to the proposition. The Convention will continue to-morrow.

The Fishery Bill

The Committee on Fisheries have voted to report against the proposed bill in regard to the Menhaden fisheries on the coast of Maine, so that the law will stand as now allowing Menhaden fisheries on the coast and river of the State. This action of the committee strikes out the first nine sections of the fishery bill.

DOMESTIC NEWS.

FORTY FIFTH CONGRESS—Second Session

WASHINGTON, Jan 23.

Senate

On motion of Mr Anthony the Committee on Naval Affairs was discharged from further consideration of Surgeon Draper's case and the Committee on Judiciary now having the Runkle case in charge, was directed to make the inquiry.

Mr Sargent called up the Senate bill to provide for the removal of the Naval Observatory. Held over.

The Senate then resumed consideration of Mr Matthews' silver resolution and Mr Cockrell (of Mo) continued his remarks in favor of the resolution.

Mr Blaine introduced a bill to coin silver of as many grains as the Director of the Mint shall from time to time prescribe, and to be a legal tender for five dollars.

Mr Cockrell spoke at some length in favor and Mr Randolph in opposition to the Matthews resolution.

At the conclusion of Mr Randolph's remarks Mr Lamar took the floor but yielded to Mr Ransom for a motion for an executive session. Here a short debate ensued regarding the time when a vote would be reached on the resolution and amendments.

Mr Blaine suggested that the Senator from Ohio (Matthews) postpone his amendment until after the silver bill should be acted upon. This resolution stood right across the path of practical legislation.

Mr Matthews declined to postpone his resolution. He was anxious to have a vote on it and was willing to undergo as much personal inconvenience as any other Senator, he therefore gave notice that if the majority of the Senate would stand by him he proposed to have the session continue on Friday until the resolution and the pending amendment were disposed of.

The Senate then went into executive session and when the doors were re-opened adjourned till to-morrow.

House

Mr Ellsworth of Michigan introduced a bill relieving bank deposits from Internal Tax. Referred.

The Campbell bill was taken up and Mr Luttrell of Cal, offered an amendment prohibiting the American vessels shall employ in any capacity whatever Chinese or Mongolians.

Mr Hunton of Ind—Is there any government on earth that makes such discrimination?

Mr Luttrell—I don't believe there is a man on the Pacific coast, Republican or Democrat unless he is a capitalist who does not believe in making this discrimination. It is in the interest of labor, morals and good government.

Mr Harrison of Ill—Suppose an American ship on the Chinese coast shall have some of its seamen disabled or suppose they should die or desert would you have the captain send to America for sailors?

After some discussion Mr Luttrell withdrew the amendment.

Mr Ward offered an amendment requiring ocean steamships to carry a mortar and other appliances for casting shot lines on shore in case of shipwreck. Adopted.

Having disposed of all but four pages of the bill it was laid aside and the Speaker at 3 o'clock presented to the House the resolutions adopted by the Senate in honor of the late Senator Bogy of Missouri. Eulogies were pronounced by Messrs Cole and Hatcher of Missouri, Waddell of North Carolina, Phillips of Kansas, Knott of Kentucky, Sparks of Illinois, Throckmorton of Texas, Clark of Missouri, Ellis of Louisiana, Rea of Missouri, and Crittenden of Missouri.

The resolutions were adopted and the House adjourned.

Outrages by the Crispins

MARLBORO, Jan 23. In a melee at the depot last night five of the new workmen imported from Maine became demoralized at the demonstrations of the Crispins and disappeared. Last night two workmen belonging in Shrewsbury were returning from Marlboro with a cook and when near Gates pond they were stopped by a crowd of one hundred men and boys who threatened to kill them if they did not drive back, saying they were "taking the bread out of our mouths." The sheriff afterwards escorted the men home and protected them from the mob. Public sentiment in Marlboro to-day is decidedly against the Crispins. A force of State police arrived this evening from Boston. The Selectmen have voted to increase the police. The Crispins claim that these acts of violence are unauthorized by them.

The Late Samuel Bowles.

SPRINGFIELD, Jan. 23. The memorial service of Samuel Bowles, held at the church of Unity this afternoon, was fully attended and lasted from 3 to 4.30. Among those present were Gov Rice, Lieut-Governor Knight, D A. Wells of Norwich, F A Walker of New Haven, Marshall Jewell of Hartford, Postmaster James of New York, Frederick Brooks of Woodstock, Vt., ex-Governor Talbot and President Seelye. The church was elegantly decorated with flowers. The services were full of tender feeling tributes to the dead journalist. Railroad Commissioner Briggs of Springfield presided. Letters were read from Charles Francis Adams, Senator Dawes, Carl Schurz and Gov. Hubbard of Conn.

The Syndicate Released from the Last 4 Per Cent. Subscription

It is understood that the Cabinet to-day agreed to release the Syndicate from their last subscription for $10,000,000 of 4 per cent. bonds, as Secretary Sherman believes his plan of selling those bonds is successful and the accounts between the Government and the Syndicate will therefore be settled immediately.

A NEW SILVER BILL.

Full Text of the Bill Introduced By Senator Blaine.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23. The bill introduced into the Senate to-day by Mr Blaine is as follows:

A bill to authorize coinage of silver dollars for circulation and make the same a legal tender and for other purposes.

Be it enacted, etc, That silver bullion may be deposited at any coinage mint or at the Assay Office in New York, for returns in silver dollars of [illegible] grains of standard silver at such rate or price per standard ounce of bullion as from time to time may be fixed by the director of the mint with an approval in writing of the Secretary of the Treasury and which rate shall correspond as exactly as possible with the market rate, and the bullion thus placed shall, in addition to other required coinage authorized by the existing law, be coined without delay to the full capacity of the mints.

Sec II. That any gain or profit arising from the coinage of silver dollars shall, after the payment of lawful wastage, be covered into the Treasury of the United States at the close of each fiscal year.

Sec III. The silver dollar herein authorized to be coined shall be legal tender as by the existing law, in common with gold coin for all sums up to and including five dollars, and for all sums exceeding five dollars the debtor shall have the right to tender in full payment and the creditor the right to demand one-half the amount in gold coin and one-half in silver dollars.

Sec IV. Fine or standard gold and silver bars bearing the stamp of any coinage mint or of the Assay office at New York, shall be received by the Assistant Treasurer at New York for their stamped value which shall be their coining rate respectively, and coin certificates shall be issued therefor by the Assistant Treasurer, in the [illegible] certificates and now [illegible] for gold coin, and the certificates so issued shall be redeemed by the Secretary of the Treasury on demand at the office of the Assistant Treasurer at New York in coin or stamped bars or bullion deposited at his option.

Registration Frauds

ST PAUL, Jan 23. The report of the Grand Jury finds systematic and enormous frauds committed in the registration of voters from the November elections in '77 by falsifying the poll books in the office of the city clerk in which a large number of fictitious names were skillfully and carefully checked as they would have been checked had they actually voted. The election in 76 of which the poll books purported to be the true record 548 such fictitious names were found.

The Peace Negotiations.

PROTECTION OF CONSTANTINOPLE

The Advance on Gallipolis.

Suleiman Pacha's Army.

The Reports from Constantinople

LONDON, Jan 23. Reports of the Russian advance beyond Adrianople are beginning to attract attention but the wild statements from Constantinople do not command much credit. It was thought at the most only a few Russian cavalry can have been seen in the direction of Gallipoli.

In the House of Commons yesterday the under Secretary for the Foreign Department said the foreign office has received no authentic information that a strong Russian force was marching on Gallipoli but had received reports concerning the truth of which it had no means of judging that Russian troops were advancing in that direction. The reports were undoubtedly forwarded by the British Ambassador at Constantinople and current rumor. The panic in Constantinople consequent on the evacuation of Adrianople and the arrival of thousands of refugees would be sufficient to account for the circulation of such rumors. The [illegible] here may be an effort to influence the British Cabinet to take some step which would involve a breach of the neutrality. In [illegible] they will be construed by those who believe Bismarck wishes to see England involved in a war with Russia.

The Peace Negotiations

A special despatch from Berlin this morning states it is expected the Turkish peace delegates will refer the less acceptable points of Russia's conditions to Constantinople that in this case the Russians will advance, that Austria seems to be confidentially informed of Russia's determination to advance in the direction of Constantinople if the terms of peace are not immediately accepted. Despatches from St Petersburg speak of irritation there at the English attitude and quote the utterances of the semi-official press to the effect that if the present negotiations fail it will be in consequence of England's refusal to recognize peace concluded without the partition of Europe.

Northcote Says that England will Protect Constantinople and Gallipolis.

NEW YORK, Jan 23. A London special says that Sir Stafford Northcote was to-day waited upon by a private deputation of conservatives and during a conversation which followed regarding the Eastern question the Chancellor informed the deputation, which consisted of members of Parliament, that the Government intended to protect both Constantinople and Gallipolis and unless things changed the Government might ask a money vote on Thursday. The British fleet has been ordered from Molo Bay to Besika Bay.

Gurko's Fight With Suleiman

LONDON, Jan 23. Further Russian bulletins show that Gen Gourko's 15 days (from the 3d to the 18th inst.) fight with Sulleman Pasha consisted of rear and flank attacks by Gourko. These were hardly resisted. The Turks' efforts were chiefly directed to escaping. Gourko states his loss was 500 including five officers killed and fifteen hundred wounded. Reports from Constantinople say Suleiman Pasha brought off 40,000 men after incredible sufferings among the snow-clad mountains of Thrace.

Peace if Possible

LONDON, Jan 23. The Turkish Parliament has voted an address asking the Sultan to hasten the conclusion of peace, or if that is rendered impossible by the exorbitant character of Russian conditions, to organize resistance to the bitter end.

A German Paper's View.

BERLIN, Jan. 23. The semi-official Correspondenz this evening says it perceives in the earnest and successful negotiations for an armistice the probability of a speedy conclusion of peace. The article adds: "Complete peace will not be settled by the belligerents alone and the solution of the questions which have to be taken into consideration cannot, to a certain extent, be effected without a previous understanding of the European powers and their co-operation, but the relations hitherto subsisting between the Powers appear to afford good grounds for trusting that at this decisive moment of eastern complications success will attend the efforts made to bring about a solution while fully protecting the interests of the general peace. A pledge of this seems to be afforded by the wisdom and moderation of the Emperor of Russia, his intimate union with the neighboring powers and the peaceful disposition recently manifested by England."

A Better Understanding.

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan 23. From information derived from well informed quarters it appears that the latest advices from London and Vienna are of rather a satisfactory character, and the relations between Russia and England are now on a better footing.

The Movement on Gallipolis

CONSTANTINOPLE, Jan. 23. The Russians have arrived at Keshon, and are expected to reach the neighborhood of Gallipoli by Saturday. Mr Layard, British Ambassador, has received a telegram from Osborne announcing that Queen Victoria has subscribed 100 pounds to the Turkish Compassionate Fund.

To Adrianople

ST PETERSBURG, Jan 23. The Grand Duke Nicholas telegraphs that he intends to leave Kezanlik on the 24th and hopes to arrive at Adrianople on the 27th.

Latest Reports from the Turkish Capital

CONSTANTINOPLE, Jan. 23. The fleet commanded by Manthorpe Bey has started for Kavala to embark Suleiman Pasha's troops. Half of the army will be conveyed to Gallipolis and half to Constantinople.

The Porte to-day received a telegram sent by Server Pasha from Kezanlik Monday stating that the Russian conditions are not yet formulated but he expected to learn them on Tuesday. The Pourparlers showed that the conditions would have a wider bearing than was at first supposed. The conversation between the negotiators had been somewhat animated.

The Porte to-day sent the delegates full powers. The Porte's desire for peace is increased all the more because Count Zichy has received no fresh instructions from Austria although it is known that Andrassy has been informed of Russia's peace conditions. The garrison of Gallipolis has been considerably reinforced.

SPAIN

The Marriage of Alfonso

MADRID, January 23. The marriage of King Alfonso took place to-day [illegible] with great splendor. Among the representatives were Queen Christina and King Francisco, the King's grandmother, and [illegible] special Ambassadors from France, Austria, Russia and England, Apostolic delegate Count and Countess of Paris, Senators, Deputies and other dignitaries. The Pope who is the King's godfather sent by the Apostolic delegate the wedding ring, blessed by His Holiness, and a [illegible] of diamonds for the Queen. The Duke de Montpensier gives his daughter twenty five million francs in addition to the grand diamonds and wonderfully rich trousseau and also gives several [illegible] of jewels and his portrait in brilliants. Great preparations have been made for the festivities in the celebration of the marriage. They are to last five days. There will be a six weeks season of Italian Opera. The Queen also received from her sister the Countess of Paris [illegible] of jewels.

TO CONSUMPTIVES. Wilbor's Cod Liver Oil and Lime has now been before the public for ten years, and has steadily grown into favor and appreciation. This could not be the case unless the preparation was of high intrinsic value. The combination of the Phosphate of Lime with pure Cod Liver Oil, as prepared by Dr. Wilbor, has produced a new phase in the treatment of Consumption and all diseases of the Lungs. This article can be taken by the most delicate invalid without creating the disgusting nausea which is such a prominent objection to the Cod Liver Oil when taken without Lime. It is prescribed by the regular faculty. Sold by the proprietor, A. B. Wilbor, Chemist, Boston, and by druggists, generally. eod

THE STORM. Yesterday was one of the days when every one endeavors to keep within doors as much as possible. Snow began falling in the morning and at two o'clock in the afternoon the wind [illegible] persons who were unfortunate enough to be obliged to be on the streets would after several ineffectual attempts to keep their umbrellas right side up close them up and place them under their arms and continue their way while their faces expressed anything but pleasure. The storm continued in the night when [illegible] four inches of snow had fallen. A correspondent at Orono speaking of the storm says: A violent snow storm set in early in the afternoon and the mercury fell twenty degrees in little more than an hour. Several inches of snow fell and at 5 o'clock the sleighing was excellent.

DEDICATION. We are informed that Rev Mr Knapp and Hon Hannibal Hamlin, have been appointed delegates to attend the dedication of the new Church of all Souls at Washington. We take the following from an exchange:

We call attention to the attractive [illegible] and [illegible] national importance of the approaching dedication of the new church at Washington. The service will be held on Tuesday evening, January 29. Dr Bellows preaching the sermon. On Wednesday morning a conference will be held and in the evening Rev Clay MacCauley will be installed as pastor. The sermon by Rev J F W Ware. The Washington society have given invitation to the ministers and delegates of all our churches opening their homes and hearts with generous hospitality. We hope that many of the churches will to-morrow take definite action to be represented by pastor and delegate. Such expression of interest and sympathy would cheer our friends in Washington and strengthen our cause in the city. After their long struggle they deserve it. And now with the completion of the enterprise this occasion is an event of success to them and to the denomination that should be celebrated with enthusiasm.

Police Court

The trial of Arthur Annett for the robbery of the Eastern Express office at Dexter was continued before Judge Goodenow yesterday, and occupied the attention of the Court all day. Among the witnesses for prosecution was J S. Heald of Portland. Mr Heald was formerly Mayor of Portland, but is now acting as a detective and is in the employ of the Maine Central Railroad Company. He went to Dexter January 10th, and met S F Walker and Col Osgood. He visited the express office and examined the safe and lock, also the door that leads from the office into the work-shop, which was fastened with a button. Could easily open the door without making any noise when the button was down. Went into the work shop and examined Annett's chest, where they found a vice, files and a piece of thin, flat steel, also a cold chisel. There were some marks on the steel, which he examined and found that the cold chisel fitted into the marks. Had a talk with Annett and showed him the key and asked him if a man used to tools could make it, and he replied that he thought they could, and also said he could make one himself. Took the tools that they found in the chest to the hotel.

S. F. Walker said that he received a despatch on Tuesday, January 8, and immediately took the train for Dexter. The next morning he went to the express office and heard Mr. Tibbett's story. Looked at the safe and door, and went to Annett's place and questioned him about the affair. After Mr. Heald arrived they went to the work-shop and searched, with the above named result. Among the tools taken were some scrapers, and after taking out what they wanted he did the rest up and delivered them to Deputy Sheriff Merrill of Dexter. Had a talk with Mr Tibbetts about fastening the door with the button and showed him that it was no protection, and when he took the button off he called their attention to the fact that the screw came out very easily showing that it had been tampered with before.

Mr Merrill was called for and asked what he did with the tools given him by Mr Walker, and he replied that he placed them on Mr Annett's bench.

The Court adjourned at about 6 o'clock and the evidence for the defense will be examined at Dexter before Judge Goodale now next Monday.

Regular size 75 cents. [illegible]

YOUR LIFE CAN BE SAVED by HUNT'S REMEDY. Dropsy and all Diseases of the Kidneys, Bladder and Urinary Organs are cured by HUNT'S REMEDY. Hundreds who have been given up by their physicians to die have been saved by HUNT'S REMEDY and are now living witnesses of its value.

It is now admitted [illegible] that CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED. It has been cured in a very great number of cases (some of them apparently desperate ones) by Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup alone, and in others by the same medicine in connection with Schenck's Sea Weed Tonic and Mandrake Pills, one or both, according to the requirements of the case.

The old supposition that consumption is incurable, for many years deterred physicians from attempting to find a remedy for that disease, and patients afflicted with it reconciled themselves to death without an effort being made to save them from a doom which was considered inevitable. Dr Schenck himself was supposed at one time to be at the very gate of death, his physicians having pronounced his case hopeless and abandoned him to his fate; he was cured by the aforesaid medicines and afterward enjoyed uninterrupted good health for more than forty years. Thousands of people have used Dr Schenck's preparations with the same remarkable success.

Schenck's Almanac containing a thorough treatise on Consumption, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, &c, can be had gratis of any druggist or of J H Schenck & Son, Philadelphia. Full directions for the use of Schenck's medicines accompany each package.

Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Sea Weed Tonic and Mandrake Pills are for sale by all druggists. Jl

TRUE ECONOMY is not in buying the lowest priced article. The best is cheapest. So with the fine cultivated and pure tea or grown spices imported by Messrs Pinckney, Jackson & Co of London and New York. I have just received a shipment of these goods and would specially invite the attention of all consumers to them. Richardson's NEW METHOD

FOR THE PIANOFORTE

Price $3 25. By NATHAN RICHARDSON.

250,000 copies sold. Sales have surpassed those of all other books combined. Be sure to order by the above full title and do not accept instead of this, THE MODERN SCHOOL, which is an older book by the same author. Mr Richardson's opinion of the merits of this first effort may be gathered from the following taken from the Preface to the NEW METHOD:

"Becoming at length satisfied of the truth of these criticisms, (by many eminent composers and professors,) and convinced that great improvements were obviously needed, I determined if possible to remedy the defects. Profiting by the experience and advice of the best practical teachers, I commenced a thorough and critical examination of my first method and concluded that the only remedy would be to bring out a new work on an improved plan."

This new work, substituted for the defective MODERN SCHOOL, was Richardson's NEW METHOD FOR THE PIANOFORTE, which has been revised, and re-revised until it is the most perfect of music books, is a great favor with the profession, and is the only true "Richardson."

IMPORTANT LETTER

From a Distinguished Physician.

No single disease has entailed more suffering or hastened the breaking up of the constitution than Catarrh. The sense of smell, of taste, of sight, of hearing, the human voice, the mind, one or more and sometimes all yield to its destructive influence. The poison it distributes throughout the system attacks every vital force, and breaks up the most robust of constitutions. Ignored because but little understood by most physicians, impotently assailed by quacks and charlatans, those suffering from it have little hope to be relieved of it this side of the grave. It is time, then, that the popular treatment of this terrible disease by remedies within the reach of all passed into hands at once competent and trustworthy. The new and hitherto untried method adopted by Dr. Sanford in the preparation of his RADICAL CURE has won my hearty approval. I believe it likely to succeed when all the usual remedies fail, because it strikes at the root of the disease, viz., the poisoned blood, while it heals the ulcerated membrane by direct application to the nasal passages. Its action is based on certain fixed rules, and unless the vital forces are too far exhausted, must, in the great majority of cases, effect a cure.

GEO. BEARD, M. D.

Nemscott Block, So. Framingham, Oct. 1, 1876.

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE

May safely claim to be one of the few popular remedies receiving the approval of medical gentlemen, who, in private, not only freely recommend it but use it in their families in preference to any of the preparations usually prescribed by physicians. "You are aware," said a distinguished city physician, "that my obligations to the State Medical Society are such that I cannot publicly recommend or prescribe the Radical Cure; but since I received so much relief from the use of it myself, after a thorough trial of the usual remedies, I have privately advised its use, and presume I have sent to your store no less than one hundred of my patients for it."

UNIVERSAL SATISFACTION.

Gentlemen,—We have sold Sanford's Radical Cure for nearly one year, and can say candidly that we never sold a similar preparation that gave such universal satisfaction. We have to learn the first complaint yet.

We are not in the habit of recommending patent medicines, but your preparation meets the wants of thousands, and we think all so afflicted should be convinced of its great merit so that their suffering will be relieved. We have been in the drug business for the past twelve years constantly, and sold everything for Catarrh, but yours leads all the rest. If you see proper you can use this letter or any part of it that you wish.

Very truly yours, S. D. BALDWIN & Co.

COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTER

An Electro-Galvanic Battery combined with a highly Medicated Strengthening Plaster, forming the best Plaster for pains and aches in the World of Medicine.

ELECTRICITY

As a grand curative and restorative agent is not equalled by any element or medicine in the history of the healing art. Unless the vital spark has fled the body, restoration by means of electricity is possible. It is the last resort of all physicians and surgeons, and has rescued thousands apparently dead, from an untimely grave, when no other human agency could have succeeded. This is the leading curative element in this Plaster.

BALSAM AND PINE.

The healing properties of our own fragrant balsam and pine and the gum of the East are too well known to require description. Their grateful, healing, soothing, and strengthening properties are known to thousands. When combined in accordance with late and important discoveries in pharmacy, their healing and strengthening properties are increased tenfold. In this respect our Plaster is the best in use without the aid of electricity.

TWO IN ONE.

This combined we have two grand medical agents in one, each of which performs its function and unitedly produces more cures than any liniment, lotion, wash, or plaster ever before compounded in the history of medicine. Try one. Price, 25 cents.

Sold by all Wholesale and Retail Druggists throughout the United States and Canadas, and by WEEKS & POTTER, Proprietors, Boston, Mass.

FOR SALE.

I will sell my entire Livery Stock, and good will of the business. It is the only one in the place and a good opportunity for one who would like to go into the business.

Reason for selling, change of business.

DIPHTHERIA!

DIPHTHERIA!

DIPHTHERIA!

DIPHTHERIA!

A WARNING

This alarming and now almost always fatal disease seems to be increasing, rather than abating throughout this State, and the number of deaths in the aggregate so far this winter is simply appalling, some villages having lost more than one hundred children, and many families have been bereft of every one. Shall this terrible sacrifice continue, or will the people of this State have regard to reason and facts, and cast aside their prejudice, and secure a simple but effectual remedy?

JOHNSON'S ANODYNE LINIMENT

IS SUCH A REMEDY,

And is within the reach of all.

IT WILL CURE THE WORST CASES

Nine Times out of Ten.

We can prove this to the satisfaction of any one by letters now on file in our office. We will present one case in point. A young married lady in Boston was suffering from this disease, Diphtheria, and was not expected to live but a few moments,—the husband, father and mother of the unfortunate were by the bed-side, as was also the attending physician. So certain were they of the near approach of death, that the bed-clothes had been arranged for the sad event. The father and mother were State of Maine people, and had known from childhood of the wonderful curative powers of JOHNSON'S ANODYNE LINIMENT. In the early morning the father had been out to the nearest drug store, and obtained a bottle, and when the physician arrived and stated that the wife and daughter could not live but a short time, the mother timidly told the doctor that she had great faith in JOHNSON'S ANODYNE LINIMENT, and asked if she might give her daughter some. The doctor replied, "Certainly, if you wish; it will do neither harm nor good." While this conversation was taking place the poor lady was gasping for breath, and it was evident that she could live but a few moments longer. But the mother quickly uncorked the bottle and gave a teaspoonful clear, to her child; the effect was like magic; in an instant she could breathe a little easier,—the mother immediately commenced to bathe the throat externally, and in a short time all present saw that the crisis was passed. In a few hours she was considered out of danger, and in a few days was well. The husband of this lady related these facts to Mr. Jennings of our firm, a few days ago, in Boston. He said that JOHNSON'S ANODYNE LINIMENT saved the life of his wife, without the shadow of a doubt. Why should not every family in this State supply themselves with this priceless remedy at once, and so be prepared for emergencies?

What is the trifling cost of a bottle, or a half dozen of this Anodyne, compared with the worth of a human life? Lose not a moment, but let every family be supplied. If any are too poor to pay, send to us and state the facts, and we will furnish it for nothing.

DIRECTIONS FOR USE.

Bathe the throat with quite warm water, wipe dry, saturate a red flannel with the Liniment, and bind round the neck (several thicknesses), with a white cotton cloth outside. Give a teaspoonful internally, repeat twice a day till cured.

LETTER CARRIERS.

All letters are delivered free by carriers when addressed to street and number. People should inform their correspondents of above and have their letters addressed accordingly.

Persons leaving their address at the General Delivery can also have their letters sent, but it is much more convenient to have the street and number on, and they will be delivered earlier than if the same is put on at the office. Carriers make two deliveries daily, the first trip supplying the extremes of their routes.

Collections are made morning and evening in season for important mails—the down town boxes fifteen and the up town boxes thirty minutes before closing mails at the office.

Holidays the Carrier's Window will be open for the delivery of letters from 8½ to 9½ A. M., and from 7½ to 8 P. M. Sundays from 8½ to 9½ A. M.

Any irregularities in the Carriers' department should be reported to the office.

ENVELOPES.

No additional charge will be made for printing the name and request to return, across the left hand upper corner of the envelopes furnished by the Post Office Department, (samples of which may be seen at the Cashier's window,) when ordered in lots of not less than 500.

A request for the return of a letter to the writer, if unclaimed within thirty days, or less, written or printed, with the writer's name, post office and State, across the left end of the envelope, on the face side, will be complied with.

The public are earnestly recommended to procure Stamped envelopes with printed return request, as the expense is less, and letters thus endorsed, if not delivered to the person addressed, are returned to the writer free of charge.

First class envelopes of above furnished at $3.20 per thousand.

Stamps cut from Stamped Envelopes cannot be used to prepay postage. The use of such Stamps is punishable by a fine of fifty dollars.

Stamped Envelopes, spoiled in directing, are redeemed at this office.

DOMESTIC POSTAGE.

FIRST CLASS.

All Letters must be Prepaid.—Letters for the Mails in the United States, three cents the half ounce or single rate. City letters, two cents half ounce or single rate.

SECOND CLASS.

Newspapers.

All regular newspapers must be prepaid at the office of publication, at the rate of two cents per pound for each issue on weekly papers or those published oftener than once a week, less frequently than once a week, three cents. The same law applies to dealers.

County papers free, except to letter carrier offices, (i. e. papers coming to this office, if published in County, are subject to postage. Daily papers published in County, if delivered by carrier, one cent each) to be prepaid by stamps.

Postage to Canada.—Same as in the States on letters and papers, pre-payment compulsory; merchandise limited to 8 oz., postage 10 cents.

THIRD CLASS.

TRANSIENT PRINTED MATTER AND BOOKS AND MERCHANDISE.

One Cent for Two Ounces.

Almanacs, books (printed), calendars, catalogues, corrected proofs, hand bills, magazines, maps—lithographed or engraved—music, printed sheets, newspapers, occasional publications, pamphlets, posters, proof sheets, prospectuses.

One cent for each ounce

Blank books, blank cards, book manuscripts, card boards and other flexible materials, chromo lithographs, circulars, engravings, envelopes, flexible patterns, letter envelopes, letter paper, lithographs, merchandise, models, ornamental paper, postal cards when sent in bulk and not addressed, photographic views, photographic paper, printed blanks, printed cards, sample cards, samples of ores, metals, minerals and merchandise, seeds, cuttings, bulbs, roots and scions, stereoscopic views.

All packages of matter of third class must be so wrapped or enveloped, with open sides or ends, that their contents may be readily and thoroughly examined by postmasters without destroying the wrappers.

The sender of a package of third class matter may write his or her name on the wrapper with the word "from," but nothing more, without subjecting the whole to letter postage.

ADVERTISED LETTERS.

All letters remaining in the office are advertised on Monday of each week. If not claimed in one month thereafter, they are then forwarded to the Dead Letter office.

MONEY ORDERS.

Especial attention is called to the Money Order system, as a safe and cheap method of transmitting small sums through the mails. Orders are issued in sums of not more than fifty dollars. Larger amounts can be transmitted to the same person, at the same time, by additional orders.

RATES.

On orders not exceeding $15,	10 cents.
" over $15 and not exceeding $30,	15 cents
" over $30 and not exceeding $40,	20 cents
" over $40 and not exceeding $50,	25 cents.

Money Orders can also be obtained on England, Ireland, Scotland, Wales, Switzerland and German States.

Never put Money in a Letter—Always Procure a Money Order.

If money is to be remitted, a Postal Money Order should be obtained. If upon points where there is no Money Order Office, then the letter should be Registered. Money should never be enclosed in an ordinary letter.

Office Hours—From 8 A. M. to 6 P. M.

REGISTRY DEPARTMENT.

All valuable letters should be Registered, unless a Money Order is obtained. Under the present system of Registration, letters are transmitted with perfect safety.

Letters may be Registered by paying postage in full and a Registration fee in stamps, for—
United States, 10 cents.
Great Britain and Ireland, and all Countries having a postal treaty with the United States, 10 cents.
